The 2015 annual meeting of USA & Canadian Chapters of the IAML is taking place in the wonderful city of Québec.

“So Europe. So Close”

Our meeting is in Québec City, Canada, nestled on the St. Lawrence River, which connects the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean. Though largely a French speaking city, the bilingual residents enjoy boasting about the local eateries, events and attractions to visitors! Québec City is steeped in more than 400 years of French Canadian and military history, including the World UNESCO Heritage site of the city’s original fortifications, the Citadelle of Québec and the famous Plains of Abraham where the Battle of Québec was fought. And, if you are looking for outdoor adventure, pack those hiking shoes: There is the 70 km network of trails in the Vallée Bras-du-Nord, the Parc National Jacques-Cartier, or just hop onto the boardwalks and lose yourself in the city! Québec City is as European a city in the “new world” as you will find.
