

CPD points for IAFL FAMILY LAW CROSS BORDER CONFERENCE, MOSCOW, RUSSIA

	Start	Finish	Duration
Monday 29th February
Welcome & Introduction	09:00	09:15	00:15
Address on behalf of the German Embassy	09:15	09:30	00:15
The Hague Conventions in Russia - opportunities, impediments and pitfalls	09:30	10:15	00:45
Hague Conventions of 1980 and 1996 : statistics and the role of Central Authority	10:15	10:45	00:30
Hague Convention on Parental Responsibility and Protection of Children (1996 Convention) - an international perspective	10:45	11:15	00:30
Articles 12 and 13 of the 1980 Convention : exceptions to the obligation to return the child. How do Russian judges apply these articles?	11:30	12:00	00:30
International relocation - the best interests of the child, a judicial perspective	12:00	12:30	00:30
Raising awareness of International Parental Child Abduction - a view from Paris	12:30	13:00	00:30
Cross-border family disputes : some topical issues	14:15	15:00	00:45
Russia and the Hague Conventions; the first decisions	15:00	16:00	01:00
How to win a Hague Convention child abduction case : key suggestions from an American lawyer	16:15	17:00	00:45
Overview of the day	17:00	17:10	00:10
Total Monday			06:25
Tuesday 1st March
Introduction - Russian family law in the international arena	09:15	09:30	00:15
General presentation of the issues of the day : regulatory framework, international private law in the Russian legislation, recognition of foreign court decisions	09:30	09:50	00:20
Family dispute resolution - mediation and arbitration in Russia and beyond	09:50	10:30	00:40
Trusts and marital agreements; a comparative exercise	10:30	11:00	00:30
The Battle of Borodino revisited? Franco-Russian divorce	11:15	11:45	00:30
Spousal maintenance on marital breakdown: how to protect the financially weaker spouse?	11:45	12:30	00:45
Questions and concluding remarks	12:30	13:00	00:30
Total Tuesday			03:30
Total both days			09:55