INTRODUCTION

The International Academy of Family Lawyers (IAFL) is a worldwide association of practicing international lawyers who are recognized by their peers as the most experienced and skilled family law specialists in their respective countries. IAFL was formed in 1986 to improve the practice of law and the administration of justice in the areas of family law and divorce throughout the world and now has a global network of over 1,030 fellows in more than 75 countries.

IAFL has a unique position globally, not only does it support the education of lawyers throughout the world and facilitate opportunities for them to grow their professional networks, but we also have a place in giving back to the worldwide community, and supporting vulnerable children and families.

IAFL is the only not-for-profit organization with Observer status at the Hague Conference on the proposed parentage and surrogacy convention, and we also have observer status on all of the main family conventions. In the last two years IAFL has supported work on the effective operation of these international conventions designed to prevent and address child abduction, support best practices in inter-country adoption and the protection of children internationally, including facilitating support of children financially. In 2023, IAFL also supported specialist family law training of the judiciary in Kenya and Zambia.

Opportunities to meet IAFL Fellows

Each year IAFL offers educational programs of the highest quality in a variety of formats including conferences, seminars, webinars and lectures with expert keynote speakers. IAFL provides numerous social and networking events for its Fellows and other family lawyers and professionals in related professions such as wealth management, business valuation, trusts, tax and forensics.

IAFL has a rigorous admissions process and potential applicants need to demonstrate that they are recognized as one of the most skilled and experienced family lawyers in the jurisdiction in which they practice.

IAFL Key facts and figures

- Over 1,030 Fellows in more than 75 countries, and rising steadily
- Currently 4 regional Chapters: the USA, European, Asia Pacific and Canadian
- 8 substantive Committees each addressing a different area of international family law

Sponsor partners are welcome to support IAFL's program of activities on an annual basis. The packages listed overleaf are available to businesses wishing to engage and partner with the IAFL for increased exposure to international family lawyers who are widely accepted as leaders in their field of law in their home jurisdictions.

IAFL is happy to create bespoke packages that best suit any potential sponsor's specific requirements. It is possible to combine meeting sponsorship with a sponsor profile through the year.

Equally, it is possible to sponsor a combination of meetings during the year. Sponsorship opportunities for our upcoming meetings can be found on pages 5 - 7.

Monies raised through the IAFL sponsorship program are used to support IAFL projects throughout the year which speak to the IAFL's current priorities and align with its overall aims and objectives to improve the practice of family law and the administration of justice in family law. In 2025, particular emphasis will be placed on the expansion of the IAFL Early Career Award aimed at young family lawyers from low and lower-middle income countries.

To find out more, and to discuss your specific requirements, please contact the IAFL Executive Director, Annie Dunster via email annie.dunster@iafl.com.

IAFL MEETINGS

IAFL Meetings are an integral part of our annual activity. Currently the IAFL organizes four main meetings per year which are open to Fellows and Lawyer Guests. The Annual Meeting of the IAFL is always held in September, and the Chapter meetings rotate between February, May and December.

In 2024 four meetings were held in Brisbane, Boston, Seattle and Paris which attracted a total of 1,066 attendees and 125 lawyer guests. IAFL Meetings include a substantial education program where the theory and practical application of international family law is discussed and debated at the highest level by some of the most experienced and skilled family law specialists from all over the world, and an extensive social program which provides numerous opportunities for networking in a variety of different settings.

There are sponsorship opportunities for all meetings, below are the detailed offerings for our meetings in 2025.
