

DR AGNE LIMANTE

Chief Researcher
Law Institute of the Lithuanian Centre for Social Science

Vilnius, Lithuania

www.teise.org

Dr Agne Limante is a Chief Researcher at the Law Institute of the Lithuanian Centre for Social Science. Her work includes legal research, conducting training, as well as work in projects implemented by the Law Institute.

One of the main research interests of Dr Limante is private international family law. At the moment, she is working on the EU co-funded project “E-training on EU Family Property regimes” (EU-FamPro; project countries: Italy, Lithuania, Spain, Slovenia, Croatia). Recently, she has led the Lithuanian team in other two EU co-funded projects in this area: “4 EU training sessions on family law regulations for cross-border lawyers and social services (C.L.A.S.S.4EU)” (project countries: Italy, Lithuania, Portugal, Hungary); and “EU judiciary training on Brussels IIa Regulation: from South to East” (project countries: Italy, Lithuania, Spain, Croatia).

Dr Limante has conducted trainings on EU private international law instruments in the family area to lawyers, judges, social services and other professionals in Lithuania, Italy, Portugal, Hungary, Spain and Croatia. Dr Limante is the author of numerous publications on different topics of family law and private international family law, including three co-authored chapters in C. Honorati (ed.), Jurisdiction in Matrimonial Matters, Parental Responsibility and International Abduction. A Handbook on the Application of Brussels IIa Regulation in National Courts, Torino, Giappichelli, ISBN 9788892112254, 2017.