

IAFL INTRODUCTION TO EUROPEAN FAMILY LAW CONFERENCE TUESDAY 3 DECEMBER

Session 3: 14.30-16.00

Relocation and child abduction

Moderator: Amy Rowe, England
Speakers: Christelle Unsalan, France
Michael Wells Greco, Switzerland
Agata Kielczyńska, Poland

Speaker Profiles P2-5

AMY ROWE
Session 3 Moderator

Partner and Mediator
Hunters Law
London, England

Web: hunterslaw.com

IAFL Fellow

Amy specialises in both domestic and international family law. She is sought after for her extensive experience of cross border disputes including child abduction, wardship, international relocation, jurisdiction disputes, and the registration and enforcement of foreign orders. Amy also specialises in complex children matters involving serious welfare considerations such as high-conflict disputes, alienation, domestic abuse, coercive and controlling behaviour, safeguarding issues and medical treatment. Amy also advises about co-parenting arrangements, family formation, cross-border adoption and international and domestic surrogacy arrangements.

Amy is an all issues mediator with particular expertise in relocation and cross border children disputes.

She is co-editor of the International Family Law Journal, a quarterly publication published by LexisNexis covering family law as it affects families and individuals across Europe and the rest of the world.

AGATA KIELCZYŃSKA
Speaker

Managing Associate
CRIDO Legal
J.Ziółek i Wspólnicy sp.k.

Web: crido.pl

Advocate with the Warsaw Bar Association, Agata has dedicated her career to the resolution of disputes involving individuals, encompassing civil, family, and property matters, as well as issues within family businesses. She is focused on supporting individuals in conflict situations within the family (especially cross-border).

As a certified mediator she assists in resolving matters concerning children, adolescents and young adults and supports pro bono care institutions, represents minors in disputes with educational and artistic institutions. She is deeply committed to defending the rights of young people, particularly in cases of violence, abuse of power, and sexual exploitation.

Agata is a member of the Children's Rights Section and serves as the Vice-Chair of the Civil Law and Procedure Section at the Warsaw Bar Association.

CHRISTELLE UNSALAN
Speaker

Christelle Unsalan Avocat
Paris, France

Web: unsalnavocat.com

Christelle is an attorney at law in Paris.

She assists French and international clients with all issues related to family law, whether they involve or not an international aspect.

She has an extensive experience on children's abduction and relocation cases.

She advises her clients on all the technical issues raised by the specific nature of international family situations (lis pendens, international jurisdiction, application of foreign law by French courts, mirroring orders, etc.).

She practices in French, English and Turkish.

Dr MICHAEL WELLS-GRECO
Speaker

Charles Ruseell Speechlys SA
Geneva, Switzerland

Web: charlesrussellspeechlys.com

IAFL Fellow

Michael advises on cross-border family, child and succession law matters. He has considerable experience in disputes relating to children (custody, relocation, child abduction (Hague and non–Hague)), both within and outside of the Court forum. Michael is highly sought after to advise on co-parenting agreements and adoption matters. Michael also deals with a wide range of cross-border family work including nuptial agreements, financial claims, cohabitation and succession issues. His work usually has an international perspective, often involving inherited wealth, tax and trust implications, substantial assets or income.

Michael teaches private international law and international family law subject matters and is a consultant lawyer to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law.