

IAFL Institute for Further Learning - Frequently Asked Questions

When will I hear if my application has been successful?

You will be notified by email during the week of 17 August 2026.

When will the course begin and when will the sessions take place?

The first monthly course will be held in September 2026 with the final module being delivered in June 2027. The sessions will be 2pm-4pm GMT.

Is there a fee for attending?

The registration fee for attending the course is US$2,000, which includes attendance at all 10 sessions; tuition and any necessary course materials, a Certificate of Completion and a complimentary registration to the IAFL Annual Meeting in Mumbai in September 2027. Please contact the Executive Director, in confidence, if financial assistance is needed.

Do I have to attend all 10 courses?

Yes! The expectation is that everyone who is enrolled attends all 10 modules.

In case I miss a course, will they be recorded?

No, there is currently no intention to record the course. Participants will be encouraged to speak freely within an environment of mutually agreed privacy.

When will the registration fee be due?

The registration fee will be due within one month of confirming your participation in the course. An invoice will be issued and payment will be requested by credit card. If you need to pay in instalments, this can be arranged in consultation with the Executive Director.

What happens on completion of the course?

On completion of the course in June 2027, all graduates of the course will automatically be enrolled into the IAFL Institute for Future Learning Alumni Network. This will enable the IAFL to keep in touch with you and for you to keep in touch with your cohort. In addition, all those graduating will receive a complimentary registration to attend the IAFL Annual Meeting in Mumbai in September 2027. The registration will include a ticket to the President's Dinner.
